

Appellant,

v.

Appellee.

* IN THE
* COURT OF SPECIAL APPEALS
* OF MARYLAND
* No.
* September Term, 20
*

* * * * *

MOTION FOR INFORMAL BRIEFING

For the following reasons, I/we request that Court of Special Appeals permit me/us to file an informal brief.<sup>1</sup>

AFFIDAVIT

I solemnly affirm under the penalties of perjury that the contents of this document are true to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.<sup>2</sup>

Very respectfully,

Signature:

Name:

Address:

Certificate of Service<sup>3</sup>

I hereby certify that on this _____ day of _____, 20____, a copy of this motion was served by: First-class mail, Hand delivery, or Other: _____ on _____ (state the name and address of all parties or their attorneys, if they are represented) and _____ the address where service was made):

Signature:

Name:

---

<sup>1</sup> Forms and instructions for informal briefing can be found on the Court of Special Appeals's webpage: <https://www.mdcourts.gov/cosappeals/informalbriefing>

<sup>2</sup> By signing your name below this affidavit, you are affirming that any factual statements you make are true to the best of your knowledge, information, and belief.

<sup>3</sup> In addition to signing this certificate of service, you must actually serve a copy of this motion on the parties or attorneys listed.