NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR CONCERNING EXEMPTIONS

As a result of the judgment entered against you, the bank or other person holding your money or property has been ordered by this court to hold your money or property that does not constitute a protected amount pursuant to 31 C.F.R. Part 212 subject to further order of the court. You may be entitled to claim an exemption of all or part of your money or property, but in order to do so you must file a motion with the court as soon as possible. If you do not file a motion within 30 days of when the garnishee was served, your property may be turned over to the judgment creditor. You may include in your motion a request for a hearing. If you file a motion claiming an exemption, the court will hear or decide your claim for exemption promptly. Some federal benefit payments may be automatically protected from garnishment and will not be held in response to the writ of garnishment. Any claim for exemption for a non-protected amount must be filed with the court no later than 30 days after service of the writ of garnishment on the garnishee.
