I. INTRODUCTION.

This Annual Report is prepared by the Maryland Commission on Judicial Disabilities ("Commission") for submission to the Maryland Court of Appeals pursuant to Maryland Rule 16-804(g).

The Commission is the primary disciplinary body to investigate complaints that allege judicial misconduct or mental or physical disability of Maryland judicial officers, as empowered by the Maryland Constitution.

The work of the Commission plays a vital role in maintaining public confidence in, and preserving the integrity and impartiality of, the judiciary. The Commission, by providing a forum for citizens with complaints against judges, helps maintain the balance between judicial independence and public accountability. The Commission also helps to improve and strengthen the judiciary by creating a greater awareness among judges of proper judicial conduct.

The laws creating and governing the Commission's work are as follows:

- Maryland Constitution, Art. IV, Sections 4A and 4B
- Annotated Code of Maryland, Courts and Judicial Proceedings, Sections 13-401 through 13-403
- Maryland Rules 16-803 through 16-810
- Maryland Code of Judicial Conduct, Maryland Rule 16-813

Copies of the above Maryland Constitution and Rules provisions are available on the Commission's website at www.mdcourts.gov/cjd/index.html.

II. HISTORY AND STRUCTURE OF THE COMMISSION.

The Commission was established by constitutional amendment in 1966 in response to a growing need for an independent body to assist in monitoring the conduct of Maryland judges. Subsequent constitutional amendments strengthened the Commission, clarified its powers, and added four additional members of the public to the Commission. The Constitution requires the Court of Appeals to adopt rules for the implementation and enforcement of the Commission's powers and the practice and procedures before the Commission.

The Maryland Constitution, Art. IV, Section 4B(a)(1)(i) & (ii) & 2, gives the Commission the following specific powers to:

- "Investigate complaints against any judge of the Court of Appeals, any intermediate courts of appeal, the circuit courts, the District Court of Maryland, or the orphans' court."

- "Conduct hearings concerning such complaints, administer oaths and affirmations, issue process to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence, and require persons to testify and produce evidence by granting them immunity from prosecution or from penalty or forfeiture."
- "issue a reprimand."
- "recommend to the Court of Appeals the removal, censure, or other appropriate disciplining of a judge or, in an appropriate case, retirement."

Further, the Maryland Rules give the Commission the authority to dismiss complaints (with or without a warning), issue private reprimands, enter into deferred discipline agreements with judges, and if the Commission "finds by clear and convincing evidence that the judge has a disability or has committed sanctionable conduct, it shall either issue a public reprimand for the sanctionable conduct or refer the matter to the Court of Appeals. . . ." with the recommendation of the Commission as to the sanction to be imposed against the judge.

Effective July 1, 2007, the Court of Appeals established by Rule the Judicial Inquiry Board, thereby creating a "two-tier" structure within the Commission. Complaints against Maryland judges are investigated by the Commission's Investigative Counsel ("Investigative Counsel"). The Commission's Judicial Inquiry Board ("Board") monitors and reviews the Investigative Counsel's investigations, reports and recommendations and submits its own reports and recommendations to the Commission Members. The Commission Members accept or reject the Board's recommendations and take action consistent with the powers and authority granted to the Commission.

The Commission Members consist of eleven persons: three representing judges, one representing the appellate courts, one representing the Circuit Courts, and one representing the District Court; three lawyers with each admitted to practice law in Maryland and having at least seven years experience; and five members of the public, none of whom are active or retired judges, admitted to practice law in Maryland, or persons having a financial relationship with, or receive compensation from, a judge or lawyer licensed in Maryland. All Commission Members are appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the State Senate, and are citizens and residents of Maryland. Membership is limited to two, four-year terms, or, if initially appointed to fill a vacancy, for no more than a total of ten years.

The Board consists of seven persons: two judges, two lawyers, and three public Members who are not lawyers or judges. Board Members are appointed by the Commission Members for a term of four years.

III. THE COMMISSION'S JURISDICTION - WHAT THE COMMISSION CAN AND CANNOT DO.

The Commission is authorized to investigate complaints only against judges of the Maryland Court of Appeals, Court of Special Appeals, Circuit Courts, District Courts, and Orphans' Courts, and any retired Maryland judge during the period that the retired judge has been approved to sit. The Commission:

1. Has no authority to investigate complaints against masters, examiners, administrative law judges, Federal Judges, lawyers, police, court personnel, State's Attorneys, or public defenders.
2. Does not have appellate authority and therefore cannot review, reverse, change, or modify a legal decision or other court action taken by a judge;
3. Cannot affect the progress or outcome of a case; and
4. Cannot require a judge's recusal or disqualify a judge from presiding over a particular case.

The only types of complaints that can be investigated by the Commission are those involving a Maryland Judge's alleged "sanctionable conduct" or "disability":

1. "Sanctionable conduct" means:
  - "misconduct while in office";
  - "persistent failure by a judge to perform the duties of the judge's office";
  - "conduct prejudicial to the proper administration of justice";
or
  - violation of the binding obligations of the Maryland Code of Judicial Conduct.

"Sanctionable conduct" does not include the following by a judge, unless the judge's conduct also involves "fraud or corrupt motive or raises a substantial question as to the judge's fitness for office":

- “making an erroneous finding of fact”;
  - “reaching an incorrect conclusion”;
  - “misapplying the law”; or
  - “failure to decide matters in a timely fashion, unless such failure is habitual.”
2. “Disability” means a judge’s “mental or physical disability that:
- seriously interferes with the performance of a judge’s duties and
  - is, or is likely to become, permanent.”

IV. THE COMPLAINT PROCESS.

Any individual, including a party or witness in a court case, lawyer, member of the public, judge, person who works for or assists the court, or other person, who has information that a Maryland judge may have committed “sanctionable conduct” or has a “disability”, can file a complaint with the Commission by completing a complaint form that can be downloaded from the Commission’s website or received from the Commission’s office, or by preparing a letter with required information. (See the Commission’s website at www.mdcourts.gov/cjd/complaint.html for details.)

If the complaint meets the Commission’s requirements, Investigative Counsel will open a file and send a letter to the complainant acknowledging receipt of the complaint and the procedure for investigating and processing the complaint. In addition, the Investigative Counsel may make an inquiry and open a file after receiving information from any source that indicates a judge may have committed sanctionable conduct or may have a disability.

Complaints and inquiries may be dismissed, prior to a preliminary investigation, if the “complaint [or inquiry] does not allege facts that, if true, would constitute a disability or sanctionable conduct and there are no reasonable grounds for a preliminary investigation.” If the complaint is not dismissed, or an inquiry is completed without a dismissal, the Investigative Counsel conducts an investigation and thereafter reports to the Board the results of the investigation, including one of the following recommendations:

- dismiss the complaint and terminate the investigation, with or without a warning to the judge against future sanctionable conduct;

- enter into a private reprimand or a deferred discipline agreement with the judge;
- authorize a further investigation; or
- file charges against the judge.

Upon receiving the Investigative Counsel's report, including recommendation, the Board reviews the report and recommendation and may authorize a further investigation, or meet informally with the judge for the purpose of discussing an appropriate disposition. Upon completion of the foregoing, the Board prepares a report, including recommendation, to the Commission Members that includes one of the following recommendations:

- dismiss the complaint and terminate the investigation, with or without a warning to the judge against future sanctionable conduct;
- enter a private reprimand or a deferred discipline agreement with the judge; or
- "upon a determination of probable cause, the filing of charges."

The Commission Members can take action, with or without proceeding on charges, after reviewing the Board's report, including recommendation, and any objections filed by the judge. If the Commission Members direct their Investigative Counsel to file charges against the judge alleging that the judge committed sanctionable conduct or has a disability, the charges are served upon the judge and a public hearing is scheduled as to the charges. This is a formal hearing conducted in accordance with the rules of evidence.

If after the hearing the Commission Members find by clear and convincing evidence that the judge has committed sanctionable conduct or has a disability, they can either issue a public reprimand for such sanctionable conduct or refer the case to the Court of Appeals with the Commission's recommendations as to disposition. The Court of Appeals can take any one of the following actions: "(1) impose the sanction recommended by the Commission or any other sanction permitted by law; (2) dismiss the proceeding; or (3) remand for further proceedings as specified in the order of remand."

V. CONFIDENTIALITY.

The complaint and all information and proceedings relating to the complaint, are confidential. The Investigative Counsel's work product and records not admitted into evidence before the Commission, the Commission's deliberations, and records of the Commission's deliberations are confidential.

After the respondent judge's filing of a response to charges alleging sanctionable conduct, or expiration of the response filing date, such charges and all subsequent proceedings before the Commission on such charges are not confidential and therefore open to the public. In addition, a respondent judge, by written waiver, may release confidential information.

Charges alleging only that a judge has a disability, and all proceedings before the Commission on such charges, are confidential.

VII. MEETINGS.

The Commission Members held 12 regularly scheduled Meetings in FY 2013.

The Board Members held 12 regularly scheduled Meetings in FY 2013.

VIII. SUMMARY OF COMMISSION ACTIVITY IN FY 2013

During Fiscal Year 2013 (July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2013), the Commission opened files for 139 written complaints.

Thirteen complaints were filed by attorneys, 2 by judges, 13 by inmates, and 2 were initiated by Investigative Counsel on his own initiative, pursuant to Maryland Rule 16-805(d). The remaining 109 were filed by members of the general public.

Complaints against Circuit Court Judges totaled 80; 52 complaints were made against District Court Judges; 2 complaints were filed against a Court of Special Appeals Judge; 1 complaint was filed against a Court of Appeals Judge; and 4 complaints were filed against Orphans' Court Judges.

The types of cases involved include family law matters (divorce, alimony custody, visitation, etc.) that prompted 30 complaints, criminal cases that prompted 32 complaints, and 69 complaints arose from other civil cases. Eight complaints failed to fit in any of those categories.

In addition, the Commission authorized the filing of charges against a District Court Judge regarding the Judge's handling of numerous direct contempt cases. The Judge and the Commission entered into an Agreement for Discipline by Consent ("Agreement") and a Stipulation of Facts and Conclusions of Law, whereby the Judge admitted to the conduct alleged in the charges and agreed that specific Rules of the Maryland Code of Judicial Conduct had been violated by the Judge. The Judge consented to a suspension without pay for five (5) work days, and to an overall suspension of ninety (90) days with the remaining eighty-five (85) days being stayed based upon the Judge's successful completion of a two (2)-year period of probation with the Commission. The Court of Appeals of Maryland entered a Consent Order approving the Agreement, making the Agreement public, and suspending the Judge without pay for five (5) work days.

Also, the Commission issued a Private Reprimand to a District Court Judge. The Commission concluded, based upon stipulated facts, that the Judge violated the Maryland Code of Judicial Conduct by making inappropriate and demeaning comments to a female attorney in the courtroom.

The Commission authorized the filing of charges against a District Court Judge regarding alleged disrespectful, rude, and demeaning comments to litigants during a hearing. Prior to any further proceedings before the Commission, the Judge informed the Governor that he did not want to be reappointed and retired at the completion of his term.

Further, the Commission entered into two Deferred Discipline Agreements with Orphans' Court Judges from two different counties regarding their handling of estate cases and their need for a reviewer to provide helpful assistance to the Judges.

The Commission issued seven (7) dismissals with a warning involving: two Orphans' Court Judges signing an affidavit providing character evidence in a civil case, without a subpoena; Circuit Court Judge failing to disclose, during the course of a trial, that the Judge may have known or should have realized that Judge might know a particular witness in the case; District Court Judge making an inappropriate comment to a defendant during a hearing; Circuit Court Judge handling a case in which Judge appears to favor an unrepresented defendant by, among other things, sustaining objections that were not made by the defendants and not treating counsel with appropriate patience, dignity, and courtesy; Circuit Court Judge making a racially offensive term that may appear to those in the courtroom that the Judge was not impartial, even though Judge did not intend to offend anyone or appear biased; and District Court Judge presiding over case in which one of the parties was the Judge's client when the Judge was in private practice and such party regularly appears before that District Court.

Forty-seven cases remained open at the end of Fiscal Year 2013.

The vast majority of complaints in Fiscal Year 2013, as in prior years, were dismissed because the allegations set forth in the complaints were either found to be unsubstantiated, or the conduct complained about did not constitute sanctionable conduct.
