

Charles County Public Law Library in partnership with Maryland Volunteer Lawyers Service (MVLS) offers FREE video chat sessions with attorneys:

Legal Advice about Foreclosure

When: April 5 from 10am to 1pm

Where: Charles County Public Law Library
200 Charles Street, La Plata, MD 20646

Get legal advice about foreclosure process and paperwork by video chat quickly and easily. Lawyers will NOT represent you in court or at mediation and cannot help you if you already have a lawyer representing you in the case.

To reserve a space call the Law Library at 301-932-3322

Need a lawyer?

MVLS is a legal services provider that offers free representation to low to moderate income Marylanders. Get help at www.mvlslaw.org or by calling (800) 510-0050 between 9am and 12pm, Monday through Thursday.

Some issues MVLS helps with include:

- ◆ Bankruptcy-Chapter 7
- ◆ Expungements
- ◆ Debt and Consumer Disputes
- ◆ Deed Changes
- ◆ Divorce
- ◆ Custody
- ◆ Income Tax Disputes
- ◆ Landlord/Tenant Disputes
- ◆ Foreclosures
- ◆ Name Changes/Birth Certificates
- ◆ Power of Attorney, Living Wills, Wills
- ◆ Administration of Small Estates
- ◆ Public Benefit Denial
- ◆ Tax Sale Foreclosure
- ◆ No Criminal (except expungement)