

February's Training Digest

The training digest is intended to provide ADR Professionals with a variety of continuing education opportunities in the field of Conflict Resolution.

*Disclaimer: Trainings included in this digest do not necessarily constitute or imply recommendation or endorsement by the Maryland Judiciary's Mediation and Conflict Resolution Office (MACRO)

Training Course	Location/Date	Point of Contact
Teaching Peace in Schools: Cultivating Restorative School Communities	February 1 & 2, 2016 Teleconference	Click here to register
Your Brain on Conflict: A Webinar	February 4, 2016 Online	For information, contact Maile Beers-Arthur at (240) 215-5874, or e-mail maile@apmediation.com . For assistance registering, contact Transcie Almonte-Sabio at (401) 567-3828, or e-mail transcie.almonte@montgomerycollege.edu .
Community Conferencing Volunteer Facilitator Workshop	February 11 – 12, 2016 Baltimore, MD	For information visit the Community Conferencing Center's website.
40-Hour Mediation Training with an Emphasis on Legal and Ethical Issues	February 15 – 19, 2016 Baltimore, MD	For information contact Baltimore Mediation at (443) 524-0833, or email office@baltimoremediation.com .
Workplace Mediation	February 19 -21, 2016 Kensington, MD	For information contact Carl D Schneider, Ph.D. of Mediation Matters at (301) 581-0330, or e-mail carl@mediationmatters.com .
Breaking the Code: Ethical Decision-Making for Mediators with POISE	February, 23, 2016 Arnold, MD	For information visit Ann Arundel Community College's Legal Studies Institute www.aacc.edu/legalstudies/cle

*Trainer's Note: For inclusion on the Training Digest, please send your March trainings to macro@mdcourts.gov by Friday, February 19th.