

SAVE THE DATE

Maryland Business and Technology (B&T) Judicial Bootcamp

APRIL 21 - 22, 2022

9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Maryland Judicial Center

187 Harry S. Truman Parkway

Annapolis, MD 21401

TOPICS WILL INCLUDE:

- Updates on the Maryland Business and Technology Program.
- Comparison of Maryland and Delaware law on the duties owed by corporate officers and managing members of LLC's, LP's and LLP's, and permissible contractual limitations.
- Recent developments in Maryland case law on corporate governance, including the interpretation of corporate charters.
- Statutory and judicially created remedies of minority stockholders and members, including claims for breach of fiduciary duty.
- Recurring procedural and substantive issues in stockholder derivative suits and class actions.

... and more!!

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Current Maryland B&T judges
- Senior Maryland B&T judges
- Maryland Circuit Court and Appellate Judges interested in Business & Technology cases
- Business Court judges from other jurisdictions

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Contact: Linda Fallowfield, Esq.

Complex Litigation Coordinator

Linda.Fallowfield@mdcourts.gov

Training presented by the Business and Technology Work Group, Committee on Complex Litigation.

Full agenda and presenter biographies will be distributed closer to the training date.

