...did unlawfully violate the Annotated Code of Maryland Criminal Law Article 1-301 as an accessory after the fact for a felony violation of Criminal Law Article 2-204, Murder in the First Degree, against the peace, government, and dignity of the State.

MURDER

Note: All first-degree murder should be charged under CR 2-201. The language used is authorized by CR 5-202. Felony-murder, as defined by CR 2-201 should be charged under 2-201. Degrees of the crime were unknown to the common law. Accordingly, these sections do not create new offenses, but merely serve the purpose of classifying the acts which they respectively proscribe as species of murder in the first degree, and mitigate the punishment in cases of the second degree. As to felony-murder, the fact that the accused was committing a felony creates proof of malice and premeditation sufficient to sustain a conviction for first-degree murder for any killing consequent to the felony.

There is no requirement that the State charge and convict upon the underlying felony in order to sustain a felony-murder conviction.

CR 2-201 includes as first-degree murder any killing consequent to an arson or attempted arson of a dwelling or adjoining building .

CR 2-201 includes as first-degree felony murder any killing consequent to the burning or attempted burning of any barn, tobacco house, stable, warehouse, or other outhouse not parcel of any dwelling.

CR -2-201 includes as first-degree felony murder any killing consequent to the commission or attempted commission of any of the following crimes:

arson in the first degree; burning an outbuilding as described in CR 2-204(a)(ii);

rape in any degree;

sexual offense in the first or second degree;

sodomy;

mayhem;

robbery under CR 3-402 & 3-403;

carjacking or armed carjacking;

burglary in the first, second, or third degree;

kidnapping as defined in CR 3-502 & CR 3-503(a)(2);

Escape in the first degree or attempted escape in the first degree from a State Correctional Facility or Local Correctional Facility or Violation of CR 4-503 concerning destructive devices.

All of these should be charged under CR 2-201.

Involuntary manslaughter is generally defined under common law as a killing of another unintentionally and without malice (1) in doing something unlawful an act not amounting to a felony, or (2) in negligently doing some act lawful in itself, or (3) by the negligent omission to perform a legal duty.

NOTE: Unintentional killing may be involuntary manslaughter if there was gross, or criminal, negligence with wanton or reckless disregard for life.

NOTE: DO NOT use this charge if killing is covered under "involuntary manslaughter" (CJIS Code 10911) or resulted unintentionally from the negligent operation of a motor vehicle or boat. However, if the allegation is that the death occurred because of the intentional operation of a motor vehicle or boat so as to cause injury or impact, such as running over the victim with an automobile, use this charge.

NOTE: Involuntary manslaughter is generally defined under common law as a killing of another unintentionally and without malice (1) in doing something unlawful an act not amounting to a felony, or (2) in negligently doing some act lawful in itself, or (3) by the negligent omission to perform a legal duty. Also, unintentional killing may be involuntary manslaughter if there was gross, or criminal, negligence with wanton or reckless disregard for life.  child under the age of 16.

NOTE: A parent of the victim may not be charged under this section. See CR 3-503.

NOTE: Aiders, abettors, and counselors are charged as principals.

NOTE: A defendant charged with this crime is eligible for a maximum of 30 years, as noted. However, if the defendant is also charged in the same proceeding with a violation of CR 3-303 through CR 3-306 (First and Second Degree Rape and Sexual Offense), and if the victim of the sexual charge is also under the age of 16, the defendant may be eligible for a penalty of a life sentence without the possibility of parole, if the State's Attorney so elects. There is no requirement that the victim of both crimes be the same, but if not, both victims must be under 16, and charged against the defendant in the same proceeding. If so, the defendant is not eligible for the life sentence without parole until the State's Attorney serves written notice upon the defendant, at least 30 days prior to trial, that the State is seeking that penalty.

Note to Commissioners: Since the enhanced penalty of life without the possibility of parole does not attach as a possibility unless both crimes are charged, involving a victim or victims under 16, in the same proceeding, the initial appearance should be conducted normally. If the Statement of Probable cause indicates that the factual situation applies, but the required notice from the State's Attorney has not been served, this may be a consideration in your determination as to pre-trial release.

IN THE EVENT that the initial appearance is conducted upon a District or Circuit Court Warrant to which a copy of the Notice to Defendant of the State's election to seek a Life Sentence Without the Possibility of Parole is attached, or to which other indication is attached that shows the State's Attorney has decided to seek the enhanced penalty, the Commissioner should place the Defendant on NO BAIL pending the bail review, and retain a copy of the notice or letter in the Court folder.

CR 3-601(a)(1) In this section the following words have the meanings indicated.

(2) “Abuse” means physical injury sustained by a minor as a result of cruel or inhumane treatment or as a result of a malicious act under circumstances that indicate that the minor's health or welfare is harmed or threatened by the treatment or act.

(3) “Family member” means a relative of a minor by blood, adoption, or marriage.

(4) “Household member” means a person who lives with or is a regular presence in a home of a minor at the time of the alleged abuse.

(5) “Severe physical injury” means:

(i) brain injury or bleeding within the skull;

(ii) starvation; or

(iii) physical injury that:

1. creates a substantial risk of death; or

B. loss of the function of any bodily member or organ; or

C. impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ.

NOTE: For purposes of this section, there is no difference between an adoptive parent and a natural parent.

NOTE: For the purposes of this section, judicial construction has defined cruel and inhumane treatment by a parent or custodian (but not by a family or household member) to include a failure ...to provide necessary medical care... if that failure was due to negligence and if it resulted in serious physical injury or death. This includes a situation where the child had already suffered injury and ...as a result... the child suffered bodily harm additional to that initially sustained as a consequence of the injury originally inflicted upon him. This subheading would apply to such materials only when they are intentionally combined with a delivery system so as to create a destructive capacity for which they were never intended. Items that have legitimate uses become subject to the provisions of this subheading when a person uses them for a criminal purpose.

NOTE TO COMMISSIONERS:

In all except employee situations (see below), there are two ways to violate CR 8-103 by issuing a bad check or by passing a bad check. There are also two ways for a check to be bad, insufficient funds (NSF) or a deliberate stop payment order.

The person that wrote a bad check is called the "Drawer." When he or his representative gives that check to another to obtain goods, services, or money, that check has been ISSUED. Choose the appropriate wording under BD CK/ISSUE, depending upon the value of the check and whether it was refused by the bank for NSF or because of a stop payment order. The term service may also include the use of computer, data processing or other equipment.

An affirmation is used by Quakers and other persons who have conscientious scruples against taking an oath, who are therefore allowed to make affirmation in any mode which they may declare to be binding upon their conscience. Commissioners should generally use the word "oath" unless clearly otherwise indicated. In any instance in which the affidavit or transcript says "swear and affirm," or words to that effect, Commissioners may use the words "oath and affirmation" or "affidavit and affirmation." without having to choose between the two unless otherwise clearly indicated.

It is not a defense to this statute that the drug or drugs were legally prescribed unless the defendant was unaware that the drug or combination would make him or her incapable of safely operating a vessel. If the defendant alleges that he or she was unaware of this, you should not take this into account in establishing probable cause, as this is an affirmative defense which must be established at trial.
