

2020 Conflict Resolution Day Bookmark Art Contest Entry Form

Sponsored by the Maryland Judiciary's Mediation and Conflict Resolution Office (MACRO)

All entries must be postmarked or received by Friday, November 13, 2020

Thank you for entering our contest. The contest is open to all Maryland students in grades K-8. The theme of your submission should include messages on peaceful conflict resolution such as, listening, respecting differences, talking things out, tolerance, and problem-solving together. Some things to keep in mind are:

- Originality is welcomed.
- Make note of the deadline.
- Download this form and use the template on the next page to create your design. Be sure that your artwork does not go outside of the broken lines on the template.
- Ask a parent, teacher or friend to help check your spelling.
- Submit this entire 2-part form with your entry.
- Have fun!

Let's get started. Please enter the information for the parent, guardian or teacher in the first line. The remainder of the information applies to your student entrant. (Use the tab button to move from field to field.)

2020 Conflict Resolution Day Bookmark Art Contest Template

Sponsored by the Maryland Judiciary's Mediation and Conflict Resolution Office (MACRO)

All entries must be postmarked or received by Friday, November 13, 2020

Tips

- For best results, use bright or dark colors with crayons, markers, pens, or paint.
- Double and triple check your spelling.
- If you use pencil in your drawing, please make sure it is dark enough to print.
- Make note of the submission deadline.

This contest is open to all students in Maryland currently in grades K-8. Use this form to create your original artwork using the space below. It is very important that none of the elements of your creation extend beyond the dotted lines below. The theme of your submission should focus on peaceful conflict resolution such as, listening, respecting differences, talking things out, tolerance, and problem-solving together.

By submitting your bookmark entry in this contest, you give MACRO permission to use the artwork in any future public awareness materials promoting conflict resolution. Only one entry per student will be accepted. When printing this template, please use the landscape orientation.

You can scan or take a picture of your completed 2-part form and upload it with your Online submission form. Or you can mail this form to: MACRO, Attn: Cheryl Jackson, 187 Harry S. Truman Parkway, Annapolis, MD 21401. If you mail your entry, please include a return label. Be sure to hold on to your original artwork until the winners are announced. More information about the contest is available at: mdcourts.gov/macro/eventsconflictresolutionday2020.
