SUMMONS

TO the sheriff or constable (in Wicomico Co., other process server): you are ordered to notify the tenant, assignee, subtenant, or their agent, by personal service, to appear in the District Court to show cause why the demand of the landlord should not be granted. Personal service may be performed at any other known address. If landlord has not requested personal service, or if at least one person to be served cannot be located and served, affix an attested copy of the summons and complaint conspicuously on the subject property and mail a copy thereof to the tenant, assignee, or subtenant by first-class mail to the address specified by the landlord. In the case of a deceased tenant, notify the occupant or next of kin of the deceased tenant by the same procedure.

NOTICE TO THE TENANT

1. If you need an interpreter or a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act, please contact the court immediately.
2. The court may limit the use of cell phones and other electronic devices in certain areas of the courthouse.
3. Your landlord is required by law to give you a written notice that they intend to file a case against you ten (10) days before filing the complaint for failure to pay rent. If you did not receive the notice, tell the judge at the beginning of your hearing.
4. This complaint asks the court to evict you for not paying rent. The landlord can include rent that isn't due on the date the landlord filed but is due before the trial date. This is sometimes called "future rent." It is listed on line seven (7) of the complaint.
5. You have the right to go to court and to be heard by a judge. The date and time of your hearing are stamped on the first page of this complaint.

If you decide to go to court:

- Please be early and bring this paper with you.
 - If you have paid your rent and late fees by the trial date, bring your receipt, and show it to the judge when your case is called.
 - If your lease requires the landlord to pay the gas or electric bill and you ended up paying it, bring proof of payment to court.
 - If you believe that you have paid your rent and fees in full or that the amount the landlord says you owe is wrong, bring proof with you.
 - If you believe that you have any other defense to this complaint, be prepared to state all the facts clearly to the judge.
 - You have the right to bring a lawyer with you to represent you at the hearing. Under the Access to Counsel in Evictions Law, all income qualified tenants will have access to an attorney. Call 211 or visit legalthelpmd.org to see if you qualify.
6. What happens next if the court enters a judgment for the landlord?
- The court has entered a judgment for possession for the landlord: this means that you have lost your case.
 - If you don't pay the rent and late fees due within seven (7) business days, the court will sign a Warrant of Restitution if requested by the landlord. The court will send the warrant to the sheriff (constable in Baltimore County), who will schedule the eviction.
 - The eviction will be cancelled if you pay all money due, including filing fees, before the eviction occurs, unless the judgment issued by the court is without right of redemption. See next paragraph.
 - If there have been three (3) prior judgments (four (4) in Baltimore City) against you in rent court for this property in the past twelve (12) months, the judgment of possession will be without right of redemption. This means that even if you pay all money due before the date of eviction, the landlord can still evict you.
 - You have the right to appeal to the Circuit Court. File a Notice of Appeal with the clerk of the District Court no later than four (4) business days from the date of judgment. The court may require you to post a bond to keep the eviction from happening until after the Circuit Court decides your appeal. You must continue to pay rent during the appeal period.

7. Shielding:

- If you won your case: The court will shield all court records in the case if the court does not enter a judgment against you.
- If you lost your case: If the court enters a judgment for possession against you, you may petition the court to shield the case records if at least twelve (12) months have passed since the final resolution of the case AND you exercised the right of redemption by paying all past due amounts before eviction. You may also petition to shield if you can show other good cause to shield.

8. Baltimore City only:

(a) The landlord must give you notice of the first scheduled eviction date by (1) mailing the notice to you by first-class mail at least fourteen (14) days in advance of the scheduled date, AND (2) posting the notice on the property at least seven (7) days before the scheduled date. You may challenge whether the notices were properly sent and posted. Any challenge will be referred to a judge for decision. If the judge decides the challenge in your favor, the eviction will be cancelled. The landlord may apply for a new Warrant of Restitution.

(b) Abandoned property: when the eviction is completed, any property you leave behind is considered abandoned. The landlord may dispose of the property by transporting it to a licensed landfill, donating it to charity, or any other lawful means.
