NOTICE TO THE RESIDENT

1. If you need an interpreter or a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act, please contact the court immediately.
2. The court may limit the use of cell phones and other electronic devices in certain areas of the courthouse.
3. This park owner is asking the court to evict you for not paying rent. If you have paid the rent by the trial date, you should come to court on the trial date with your receipt and ask the court to dismiss the case.
4. You have the right to go to court and be heard by a judge. The date and time of your hearing are stamped on the first page of this complaint.

If you decide to go to court:

- Please be early and bring this paper with you.
  - If you have paid your rent and late fees by the trial date, bring your receipt, and show it to the judge when your case is called.
  - If you believe that you have paid your rent and fees in full or that the amount the park owner says you owe is wrong, bring proof with you.
  - If you believe that you have any other defense to this complaint, be prepared to state all the facts clearly to the judge.
  - You have the right to bring a lawyer with you to represent you at the hearing. Under the Access to Counsel in Evictions Law, all income qualified residents will have access to legal representation. Call 211 or visit legalthelpmd.org to see if you qualify.
5. What happens next if the court enters a judgment for the park owner?
- The court has entered a judgment for possession for the park owner: this means that you have lost your case.
  - If you don't pay the rent and late fees due within fifteen (15) days, the court may sign a Warrant of Restitution if requested by the park owner. The court will send the warrant to the sheriff (constable in Baltimore County), who will schedule the eviction. An eviction includes the removal of the mobile home from the park owner's property.
  - The eviction will be cancelled if you pay all money due, including filing fees, before the eviction occurs, unless the judgment issued by the court is without right of redemption. See next paragraph.
  - If there have been three (3) prior judgments against you in rent court for this property in the past twelve (12) months, the judgment of possession will be without right of redemption. This means that even if you pay all money due before the date of eviction, the park owner can still evict you.
  - On the day of the eviction, the sheriff or constable will meet the park owner at your home. The park owner's workers will remove the mobile home and any additions or attachments to it from the premises. The sheriff or constable is not responsible for protecting your property.
  - You have the right to appeal to the circuit court. File a notice of appeal with the clerk of the District Court no later than two (2) business days from the judgment. The court may require you to post a bond to keep the eviction from happening until after the circuit court decides your appeal. You must continue to pay rent during the appeal period.
