Filed: December 12, 2025

*This is a per curiam opinion. Under Rule 1-104, the opinion is not precedent within the rule of stare decisis, nor may it be cited as persuasive authority.

On December 3, 2024, Latonya Waller filed a petition for judicial review in the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County seeking review of the August 27, 2024 decision of the Board of Appeals, Maryland Department of Labor, denying her claim for unemployment insurance benefits. The Board of Appeals moved to dismiss the petition as untimely filed. The circuit court granted the motion.

On appeal, Ms. Waller does not dispute that her petition was filed well-beyond the 30-day deadline. Rather, she asserts that the circuit court erred or abused its discretion in dismissing it because she is self-represented and because her petition was filed late due to medical issues she was experiencing. The Board of Appeals responds that the circuit court had no authority or discretion to excuse the late filing. We agree. See S.B. v. Anne Arundel County Department of Social Services, 195 Md. App. 287, 307-09 (2010) and the cases cited therein.
